

DECIDE: Providers A study to examine how healthcare providers and staff assist families of African American/Black persons living with dementia navigate healthcare decision making

DECISION-MAKING
EXPERIENCES for CULTURALLY
INCLUSIVE
DEMENTIA
ENGAGEMENT

WHO:

- Physicians
- Physician's assistants
- Nurse practitioners
- Nurses
- Social workers
- Medical assistants

WHAT: We are looking for healthcare providers and staff who assist African American/Black persons living with Alzheimer's disease and related dementias in making healthcare decisions.

WHY: To develop the DECIDE intervention for family caregivers

Eligible participants will be expected to engage in one confidential 60-minute virtual interview and will receive $40 compensation.

If interested, contact Dr. Kalisha Bonds Johnson at kbonds@emory.edu or 404-727-5937.