IMFP Call for Fellowship Applications

The Interdisciplinary Minority Fellowship Program (IMFP) is funded by a new grant from the federal Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA). This fellowship program is designed for master's and doctoral students in psychology, nursing, social work, marriage and family therapy, mental health counseling, and substance use and addictions counseling whose training prepares them for careers in behavioral health services for ethnic and racial minorities who have a mental or cooccurring mental and substance use disorder.

APPLICATIONS NOW OPEN!

Applicants must:

- Be U.S. citizens, permanent residents, or noncitizen nationals.
- Have a strong commitment to a career in racial/ethnic minority behavioral health services.
- Not be interns; no fellowship support is available during a student's internship year.
- Complete a community project during each year of funding.
- Sign a letter of commitment attesting that they will work for a period of two years in a capacity that addresses the behavioral health needs of racial and ethnic minority populations.
