This week's recommended Health and Wellness Activity:

Yoga at Your Desk

The following articles may be of interest to you:

Setting Boundaries With Our Work

Texas lawyer, trapped by cat filter on Zoom call, informs judge he is not a cat

FDA Aims To Be 'Nimble' On COVID-19 Vaccine Changes For Variants

FAMU to launch community COVID vaccine distribution operation on Tallahassee campus

Health Disparities:

Among Latino immigrants, false vaccine claims are spreading as fast as the virus

Health inequities prevalent in Black communities
CALL FOR APPLICATIONS!

SAVE THE DATE
2021 Minority Fellowship Program
Virtual Intensive Winter Institute
March 19-20, 2021
Theme: Leadership, Behavioral Health Policy and Professional Development.
Registration is Open!
Look for an email invite from anam@mcgebenet.org and register TODAY to reserve your virtual seat.

EQUITY TRAINING
• Emphasize the role of equity in program mission.
• Increase awareness of institutionalized racism.
• Examine the impact of racism on health, health disparities, and health care delivery.
• Develop leadership skills and strategies to address health inequities.
• Support the development of culturally competent health systems.
• Promote the integration of cultural competence training into all programs.

The Minority Fellowship Program (MFP) is a three-year leadership training program for graduate and/or postgraduate students from underrepresented racial/ethnic minority groups. It is sponsored by the National Center for Minority Health and Health Disparities (NCMHD) of the National Institutes of Health (NIH). MFP graduates are prepared to become leaders in health policy and professional development, with a focus on addressing health inequities and improving health outcomes for minority populations.

IMFP CALL FOR APPLICATIONS
APPLiCATIONS DEADLINE: June 30, 2021
Applications are now being accepted for the Minority Fellowship Program (MFP). The Minority Fellowship Program (MFP) is a three-year leadership training program for graduate and/or postgraduate students from underrepresented racial/ethnic minority groups. It is sponsored by the National Center for Minority Health and Health Disparities (NCMHD) of the National Institutes of Health (NIH). MFP graduates are prepared to become leaders in health policy and professional development, with a focus on addressing health inequities and improving health outcomes for minority populations.

APPLICATIONS DEADLINE: June 30, 2021
Applications must be received no later than June 30, 2021.
Applications should be submitted online through the Minority Fellowship Program website (https://www.minorityfellowshipprogram.org/apply). The application process involves the following steps:
1. Gathering all required documentation.
2. Completing the online application and submitting it by the deadline.

Successful applicants will be notified by June 30, 2021.

Missed an issue? Check out our e-Newsletter archives at emfp.org/news/e-newsletters.

STOP COVID-10 XENOPHOBIA
CLICK HERE TO REPORT ASIAN AMERICAN HATE CRIMES DUE TO COVID 10 MISINFORMATION.

SAMHSA.GOV
The Substance and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) website, SAMHSA.GOV, provides COVID-19 guidance and resources to assist individuals, providers, communities and states across the country. The website is updated daily.

Stay connected! Follow us on social media.